“FIFA 20 was a revolutionary step forward in gaming tech, and ‘HyperMotion’ fully matches the fantastic gameplay you expect from the FIFA series,” said Kazumasa Niito, EVP, Creative Development at EA. “We’re taking this incredible technology even further with ‘FIFA 22,’ and we’re proud to be one of the first developers to offer a true EA Sports simulation on PlayStation VR.” “This is the first time players will be able to experience control over all five-on-five gameplay using a VR headset,” says Alex Amancio, Senior Producer at Take-Two. “That means it’s like running around in the virtual game with your friends and even enemies. What could be better?” “The process of balancing the experience for a new technology like PS VR is no easy task,” said Johan Andersson, Technical Director at Sony. “But with the keen insight provided by EA and the incredible gameplay provided by T2, it’s looking very promising for the future of FIFA.” The standard PS4 version of the game will be available worldwide on Sept. 19. A PS VR version will be available worldwide on Oct. 13. PLAYSTATION®4, PS4 and PLAYSTATION VR are trademarks of Sony Interactive Entertainment, Inc. "FIFA," "FIFA 20" and "FIFA World Cup" are trademarks of the Electronic Arts Inc. "PS" is a trademark of Sony Interactive Entertainment Inc.1. Field of the Invention The present invention relates to a planar light source device for generating a planar light by radially transmitting a light flux of a light source to a light guide plate, and to a liquid crystal display device including the planar light source device. 2. Description of the Related Art In a liquid crystal display device including a liquid crystal panel, which comprises a light source and a liquid crystal cell optically transmitting light from the light source in cooperation with each other, the light source is classified into a direct-light type and an edge-light type depending on the position of the light source in relation to the liquid crystal panel. In a direct-light type liquid crystal display device, the light source is disposed directly above the liquid crystal cell. In an edge-light type liquid crystal display device, light sources are provided in the lateral sides of the liquid

Features Key:

- A More Immersive Story - In addition to the new “Dynamic Transfer Market,” which lets you seamlessly work with your club chairman, team advisors, transfer market participants, and current and future teammates, you’ll also be immersed in an even more authentic FIFA story.
- New Tackling Engine - The new 'Contacts' system allows players to be more realistic when tackling, and use more of their bodies to tackle opponents without being ball-carried. Electronic and spring-powered checks also trigger genuine, realistic injury symptoms, and there are new precedents and targeting cues to inform players when they may start to be 'finished off' by an opponent.
- Power Up For World Cup 2018 - The FIFA World Cup™ returns to Russia in 2018, with improved graphics and pitch recognition, a new dynamic weather system for individual stadiums, and new ball physics to improve player control and reaction to the ball. There is also four new kits for the tournament.

What's new:

- Capture the Attack — As ever the biggest addition is to the deep-lying creator. Tap the pass button for brief moments and your striker will immediately run to the perfect position to place a beautiful lobbed pass directly into an open goal. More than 40 skills can be unlocked this way. But ultimately, finishing remains the name of the game. Set the odds on which assists you wish to construct - with additional options to mix it up.
- Easy Moments of Magic — Imagine coming up with a tackle, allowing you to master the critical seconds ahead of a counter-attack - a spectacular long-ball to score or a clever centre from a free kick. This is made possible thanks to easy moments of magic that come from getting yourself in quick, efficient positions. Crucially, the timing of the easy moments of magic can be set up ahead of time to be as powerful and as frequent as necessary. Later, a glimpse at the pitch reinforces your faith in the gamble. Play a cross and a penalty taker shapes up to take down the defender. Danger is gathering.
- The postcard pitch - a God of video games
 - Using over 900,000 man-hours, the pitch has gone to the moon. Take an epic 360-degree view as you feel the game pulling you towards the penalty box. A special postcard pitch has been created so you can transfer the experience to the real world. Even better, the surface has never been crafted to play more realistic.*
